Tell me more about Day Camp!

Youth attending our Vacation Bible School programs are left wondering, "Why does it have to end?!" That's how it can be in your church! Kids who attend a week of Day Camp are so excited about experiencing Jesus during the week that they don't want to see the week come to a close. Congregations and camp staff work together to share the Good News of Jesus through worship, music, skits, games, crafts, and Bible-based lessons. Campers interact in both large and small group settings to dig into the fun. Hands-on activities are used to enhance the week's theme.

A team from Ingham Okoboji will staff your Day Camp with trained counselors. Our summer staff is made up of college-aged men and women who love Jesus and kids. They are committed to work for the glory of God and are equipped to lead all the programming for the week. The team size is determined according to the number of your Day Camp attendees.

Day Camp is usually held Monday through Thursday, with flexible schedule options according to your congregations' needs. A camper program on Thursday is a great way to end the week because it gives families and friends an opportunity to see how the children's lives have been impacted by the Lord.

Registering for day camp now will secure your spot for summer 2009. We hope you will let us partner with you in this special ministry opportunity!

Day Camp is a growing ministry throughout the churches we serve. Please look into Day Camp as an option for your congregation's Vacation Bible School next summer. Dates do fill up very fast.
