

Family Camp Cost Details 2022

General Notes:

- A $200 non-refundable deposit per housing unit (room/cabin) is due when reserving your housing.
- The remaining balance of your family camp fees are due upon arrival to camp.
- Your final family camp balance will vary based on the housing you choose, the number of people in your family, and the age of the people in your family.
- Camperships are available for any family who needs to make use of them. Campership funds can only be applied to families being housed in Altahaus or Christopherhaus.
- All housing is air conditioned and has a private bathroom.

Housing Pricing:

- To view photos & read descriptions of all of our housing options, please visit www.okoboji.org/okoboji.
- If your preferred housing is not available, your name can be placed on a waiting list in case it does become available. You will be called if your preferred housing opens up.
- If your top choice is not available, we recommend reserving an alternative housing option the week you wish to come to ensure there is a space for your at camp that week.
- The new Beach House Retreat Center is available for 2022 reservations. There are a variety of room sizes and housing is booked by the room. Please visit the website above to see the floor plan and other details.
