The Point: Our Father

Matthew 19:13-15/Mark 10:13-16/Luke 18:15-17 (let the children come)

God reveals Himself as a relational God, giving us a sense of belonging when He adopts us into His family. By calling himself Abba (Father), God invites us to approach him with a child-like faith and trust.

"God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, 'Abba, Father.'"
Galatians 4:6 (NIV)

The Point: Our Savior

Luke 18:9-14 (Pharisee & tax collector parable)

The LORD's heart breaks when He sees His children separated from Him because of sin. Knowing we could never make ourselves righteous on our own, the LORD in His goodness sends His own son in our place to be our righteousness and redeem us back to Him.

"Christ had no sin, but God made him become sin so that in Christ we could become right with God."
2 Corinthians 5:21 (NCV)

The Point: Our Provider

Exodus 16 (Manna and Quail)

The LORD delights in our dependence. By trusting in Him, we honor Him as our provider. Jesus repeatedly teaches us not to worry about our needs, but to trust in God who will provide for them. God never promises to give us everything we want, but He does promise to give us everything we need to do whatever He has called us to do.

"He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons; he provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy."
Acts 14:17 (NIV)

The Point: Our Defender

2 Chronicles 20:1-30 (Jehoshaphat)

God has complete authority over everything seen and unseen. The name "Lord of Hosts" reveals God's command over all the armies of heaven and earth. The Lord of Hosts is FOR US, and fights FOR US. God is our refuge, our fortress, our shield, our defender.

"The Lord is with me, I will not be afraid; what can anyone do to me?"
Psalm 118:6 (GNT)
